

Texas Department of Insurance
Notice of Rate Filing
Texas Automobile Insurance Plan Association

Description:

On September 11, 2019, the Texas Automobile Insurance Plan Association (TAIPA) filed a request to charge new insurance rates for private passenger and commercial automobiles. The filed rates represent a 4.9 percent increase in private passenger automobile rates and a 4.8 percent increase in commercial automobile rates. TAIPA proposed an effective date of February 1, 2020, for new and renewal business.

The Commissioner of Insurance will review the filing to determine if TAIPA's proposed rates are just, reasonable, adequate, not excessive, not confiscatory, and not unfairly discriminatory for the risks covered, as required by Texas Insurance Code §2151.201 and §2151.202. TAIPA's proposed rates must also be sufficient to carry all claims to maturity and meet the expenses incurred in writing and servicing the business.

Pursuant to Texas Insurance Code §2151.2022(c), the Commissioner has extended the period by which the filing must be approved or disapproved by 30 days. The filing must now be approved or disapproved no later than November 10, 2019.
