

Isha N. Bennett

Cv/Biography

Isha N. Bennett is motivated, driven, and passionate about her work, whether helping to enhance an individual's quality of life, or build community collaborations. She strives to properly and strategically plan to provide the highest quality of service as it pertains to her work performance. And, as a professional Mediator, Isha is responsible, well respected, not afraid of hard work, has served as a volunteer for Dallas County Dispute Resolution Center, and, organizations within various communities to help them develop best management practices. Isha is confidence, compassionate, a keen listener, has a strong desire to problem solve, negotiate, and overall resolve all disputes.

Education

- Master of Science, University of North Texas at Dallas University
- Bachelor of Sociology, University of North Texas University
- Undergraduate Academic Certificate in Alternative Dispute Resolution, University of North Texas at Dallas University

Mediation Training Highlights

- Advanced Volunteer Mediation Training, Dallas County Dispute Resolution Center
- Domestic Relations & Family Violence Training, Dallas Bar Association in Conjunction with Dallas County Dispute Resolution Center
- Advanced Family Mediation Training
- Advance Civil Mediation Training