

APPEAL NO. 011411
FILED JULY 30, 2001

This appeal arises pursuant to the Texas Workers' Compensation Act, TEX. LAB. CODE ANN. § 401.001 et seq. (1989 Act). A contested case hearing (CCH) was held on May 22, 2001. The hearing officer determined that the respondent's (claimant) compensable injury extended to the left wrist. The appellant (carrier) filed an appeal, contending that the hearing officer's determination is contrary to the great weight and preponderance of the evidence. The claimant urges affirmance.

DECISION

Affirmed.

The evidence sufficiently supports the hearing officer's determination that the claimant's compensable injury extends to the left wrist. At the CCH, the parties stipulated that the claimant sustained a compensable injury on _____. The hearing officer determined from the claimant's testimony and the medical reports in evidence that the claimant's compensable injury sustained on _____, extended to the left wrist.

The hearing officer, as finder of fact, is the sole judge of the relevance and materiality of the evidence as well as the weight and credibility that is to be given the evidence. Section 410.165(a). It was for the hearing officer, as trier of fact, to resolve the inconsistencies and conflicts in the evidence. Garza v. Commercial Insurance Company of Newark, New Jersey, 508 S.W.2d 701 (Tex. Civ. App.-Amarillo 1974, no writ). This is equally true regarding medical evidence. Texas Employers Insurance Association v. Campos, 666 S.W.2d 286 (Tex. App.-Houston [14th Dist.] 1984, no writ). We will reverse the factual determination of a hearing officer only if that determination is so against the great weight and preponderance of the evidence as to be clearly wrong and unjust. Cain v. Bain, 709 S.W.2d 175, 176 (Tex. 1986); Pool v. Ford Motor Company, 715 S.W.2d 629, 635 (Tex. 1986). Applying this standard of review to the record of this case, we decline to substitute our opinion of the evidence for that of the hearing officer.

We affirm the decision and order of the hearing officer.
