

APPEAL NO. 011645
FILED AUGUST 23, 2001

This appeal arises pursuant to the Texas Workers' Compensation Act, TEX. LAB. CODE ANN. § 401.001 et seq. (1989 Act). A contested case hearing was held on June 20, 2001. With respect to the issues before him, the hearing officer determined that the appellant (claimant) was not entitled to supplemental income benefits for the third and fourth quarters because the claimant failed to make a good faith effort to obtain employment commensurate with his ability. The claimant appeals and seeks reversal on sufficiency grounds. The respondent (self-insured) responds and urges affirmance.

DECISION

Reversed and remanded.

This case is remanded for the sole purpose of obtaining compliance with HB2600, which amended Section 410.164, effective June 17, 2001. Section 410.164 was amended by the addition of subsection (c), which provides as follows:

At each [hearing], as applicable, the insurance carrier shall file with the hearing officer and shall deliver to the claimant a single document stating the true corporate name of the insurance carrier and the name and address of the insurance carrier's registered agent for service of process. The document is part of the record of the [hearing].

The procedure to be used for implementing the statutory amendment is contained in the June 19, 2001, Texas Workers' Compensation Commission (Commission) memorandum to hearing officers entitled "Required Insurance Carrier Information." We note that the folder forwarded to the Appeals Panel contains a document that purports to provide the necessary information. However, that document was not admitted in evidence as a hearing officer exhibit and is, therefore, not part of the record. In addition, there is no indication that a copy of the document was provided to the claimant as Section 410.164 requires. In the absence of evidence that the requirements of Section 410.164 have been satisfied in this instance, we must remand, despite the fact that it appears that the information concerning the true corporate name and the registered agent for service of process has been provided. On remand, the hearing officer must ensure that both the requirement that the information be made part of the record and the requirement that the information be delivered to the claimant are satisfied.

Pending resolution of the remand, a final decision has not been made in this case. However, since reversal and remand necessitate the issuance of a new decision and order by the hearing officer, a party who wishes to appeal from such new decision must file a request for review not later than 15 days after the date on which such new decision is received from the Commission's Division of Hearings, pursuant to Section 410.202, which was amended June 17, 2001, to exclude Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays listed in the Government Code in the computation of the 15-day appeal and response periods.

The hearing officer's decision and order are reversed and remanded.
