

APPEAL NO. 011919
FILED SEPTEMBER 26, 2001

This appeal arises pursuant to the Texas Workers' Compensation Act, TEX. LAB. CODE ANN. § 401.001 et seq. (1989 Act). A contested case hearing (CCH) was held on July 17, 2001. The hearing officer determined that the appellant's (claimant) compensable injury to his neck and shoulder on _____, did not extend to and include a low back injury. The claimant has appealed on sufficiency of the evidence grounds. The respondent (self-insured) filed a response, urging that the decision and order of the hearing officer be affirmed.

DECISION

Reversed and remanded.

This case is remanded for the purpose of obtaining compliance with HB2600, which amended Section 410.164, effective June 17, 2001. Section 410.164 was amended by the addition of subsection (c), which provides as follows:

At each [CCH], as applicable, the insurance carrier shall file with the hearing officer and shall deliver to the claimant a single document stating the true corporate name of the insurance carrier and the name and address of the insurance carrier's registered agent for service of process. The document is part of the record of the [CCH].

The procedure to be used for implementing the statutory amendment is contained in the June 19, 2001, Texas Workers' Compensation Commission (Commission) memorandum to hearing officers entitled "Required Insurance Carrier Information." A rehearing on remand is required to obtain the required information from the self-insured and to admit it into evidence.

Pending resolution of the remand, a final decision has not been made in this case. However, since reversal and remand necessitate the issuance of a new decision and order by the hearing officer, a party who wishes to appeal from such new decision must file a request for review not later than 15 days after the date on which such new decision is received from the Commission's Division of Hearings, pursuant to Section 410.202, which was amended June 17, 2001, to exclude Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays listed in the Texas Government Code in the computation of the 15-day appeal and response periods.
