

APPEAL NO. 012240
FILED NOVEMBER 5, 2001

This appeal arises pursuant to the Texas Workers' Compensation Act, TEX. LAB. CODE ANN. § 401.001 et seq. (1989 Act). A contested case hearing was held on August 15, 2001. The hearing officer determined that the respondent (claimant) sustained a compensable injury on _____, and that the claimant had disability from _____, until May 21, 2001. The appellant (carrier) has appealed this determination on sufficiency of the evidence grounds. There is no response from the claimant contained in our file.

DECISION

Affirmed.

The claimant testified that on _____, he was pulling wires in the course and scope of his employment as an apprentice electrical worker when he injured his low back. He further testified that he was unable to work the following day and remained unable to work until May 21, 2001. The medical records admitted into evidence support the claimant's contention that he had a low back injury.

Section 410.165(a) provides that the hearing officer, as finder of fact, is the sole judge of the relevance and materiality of the evidence as well as the weight and credibility that is to be given the evidence. It was for the hearing officer, as trier of fact, to resolve the inconsistencies and conflicts in the evidence. Garza v. Commercial Insurance Company of Newark, New Jersey, 508 S.W.2d 701 (Tex. Civ. App.-Amarillo 1974, no writ). This is equally true regarding medical evidence. Texas Employers Insurance Association v. Campos, 666 S.W.2d 286 (Tex. App.-Houston [14th Dist.] 1984, no writ). The trier of fact may believe all, part, or none of the testimony of any witness. Aetna Insurance Company v. English, 204 S.W.2d 850 (Tex. Civ. App.-Fort Worth 1947, no writ). We will reverse a factual determination of a hearing officer only if that determination is so against the great weight and preponderance of the evidence as to be clearly wrong and unjust. Cain v. Bain, 709 S.W.2d 175, 176 (Tex. 1986); Pool v. Ford Motor Company, 715 S.W.2d 629, 635 (Tex. 1986). Applying this standard of review to the record of this case, we decline to substitute our opinion of the credibility of the respective witnesses for that of the hearing officer.

The hearing officer's decision and order are affirmed.
