

APPEAL NO. 020844
FILED MAY 22, 2002

This appeal arises pursuant to the Texas Workers' Compensation Act, TEX. LAB. CODE ANN. § 401.001 et seq. (1989 Act). A contested case hearing (CCH) was held on December 5, 2001. The issue concerned whether a change of treating doctor should have been approved; the decision of the hearing officer was remanded in Texas Workers' Compensation Commission Appeal No. 020022, decided February 14, 2002, and on remand, the hearing officer determined that the appellant (claimant) could not change his treating doctor pursuant to Section 408.022.

The claimant has appealed this determination as against the great weight and preponderance of the evidence and the respondent (carrier) responds that the decision correctly applied the objective statutory criteria.

DECISION

We affirm the hearing officer's decision.

Essentially, the claimant quarrels with the manner in which the hearing officer gave weight and credibility to the evidence. The hearing officer is the sole judge of the relevance, materiality, weight, and credibility of the evidence presented at the hearing. Section 410.165(a). The decision should not be set aside because different inferences and conclusions may be drawn upon review, even when the record contains evidence that would lend itself to different inferences. Garza v. Commercial Insurance Company of Newark, New Jersey, 508 S.W.2d 701 (Tex. Civ. App.-Amarillo 1974, no writ). In considering all the evidence in the record, we cannot agree that the findings of the hearing officer are so against the great weight and preponderance of the evidence as to be manifestly wrong and unjust. In re King's Estate, 150 Tex. 662, 244 S.W.2d 660 (1951). We, therefore, affirm the decision and order.

The true corporate name of the insurance carrier is AMERICAN HOME ASSURANCE COMPANY and the name and address of its registered agent for service of process is
