

APPEAL NO. 050088
FILED MARCH 1, 2005

This appeal arises pursuant to the Texas Workers' Compensation Act, TEX. LAB. CODE ANN. § 401.001 et seq. (1989 Act). A contested case hearing was held on December 7, 2004. The hearing officer resolved the disputed issue by deciding that the appellant (self-insured) is not entitled to contribution from the prior compensable injury. The self-insured appeals, contending that the hearing officer's decision is erroneous. No response was received from the respondent (claimant).

DECISION

The hearing officer's decision has become final pursuant to Section 410.169 because the self-insured's appeal was not timely filed with the Texas Workers' Compensation Commission (Commission).

Section 410.202(a) provides that to appeal the decision of a hearing officer, a party shall file a written request for appeal with the Appeals Panel not later than the 15th day after the date on which the decision of the hearing officer is received from the division and shall on the same date serve a copy of the request for appeal on the other party. Section 410.202 was amended effective June 17, 2001, to exclude Saturdays and Sundays and holidays listed in Section 662.003 of the Texas Government Code from the computation of time in which to file an appeal or a response. Tex. W.C. Comm'n, 28 TEX. ADMIN. CODE § 143.3(e) (Rule 143.3(e)) provides that a request for appeal shall be presumed to be timely filed if it is: (1) mailed on or before the 15th day after the date of receipt of the hearing officer's decision; and (2) received by the Commission not later than the 20th day after the date of receipt of the hearing officer's decision. Both portions of Rule 143.3(e) must be complied with for an appeal to be timely. Texas Workers' Compensation Commission Appeal No. 042751, decided December 8, 2004. Rule 102.5(d) provides in pertinent part that, for purposes of determining the date of receipt for those written communications sent by the Commission which require the recipient to perform an action by a specific date after receipt, unless the great weight of evidence indicates otherwise, the Commission shall deem the received date to be the first working day after the date the written communication was placed in a carrier's (city) representative's box located at the Commission's main office in (city) as indicated by the Commission date stamp. See also Rule 143.3(d)(2) regarding deemed receipt of the hearing officer's decision the first working day after the date the written communication was placed in the carrier's (city) representative's box, unless the great weight of evidence indicates otherwise.

A date stamp on the cover letter to the hearing officer's decision reflects that it was placed in the self-insured's (city) representative's box on December 17, 2004. The first working day after December 17, 2004, was Monday, December 20, 2004. December 20, 2004, is the deemed date of receipt. The 15th day after December 20, 2004, excluding Saturdays and Sundays and holidays listed in Section 662.003 of the Texas Government Code, was Tuesday, January 11, 2005. The self-insured's appeal is dated January 12, 2005, and the envelope in which it was mailed contains a postage meter stamp date of January 12, 2005. Because the self-insured's appeal was mailed to the Commission after January 11, 2005, it was not timely filed with the Commission. The self-insured's appeal would also be untimely filed if the 15-day time period were calculated from the date the self-insured's (city) representative provided a signed acknowledgment of receipt on December 20, 2004 (which was the first working day after the hearing officer's decision was placed in the self-insured's (city) representative's box). Section 410.169 provides in pertinent part that a decision of a hearing officer regarding benefits is final in the absence of a timely appeal by a party.

Having determined that the hearing officer's decision and order have become final under Section 410.169 because a timely appeal was not filed with the Commission, the Appeals Panel does not have jurisdiction to review the hearing officer's decision.
