

APPEAL NO. 050516
FILED MARCH 29, 2005

This appeal arises pursuant to the Texas Workers' Compensation Act, TEX. LAB. CODE ANN. § 401.001 et seq. (1989 Act). A contested case hearing (CCH) was held on January 20, 2005. The hearing officer determined that the appellant (claimant) did not sustain a compensable injury on _____, and that because the claimant did not sustain a compensable injury, he did not have disability. The claimant appealed the hearing officer's determinations based on sufficiency of the evidence grounds. The respondent (carrier) responded, urging affirmance.

DECISION

The hearing officer's decision has become final pursuant to Section 410.169 because the claimant's appeal was not timely filed with the Texas Workers' Compensation Commission (Commission).

Pursuant to Section 410.202(a), a written request for appeal must be filed within 15 days of the date of receipt of the hearing officer's decision. Section 410.202 was amended effective June 17, 2001, to exclude Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays listed in Section 662.003 of the Texas Government Code from the computation of time in which to file an appeal. Section 410.202(d). Tex. W.C. Comm'n, 28 TEX. ADMIN. CODE § 143.3(e) (Rule 143.3(e)) provides that an appeal is presumed to have been timely filed if it is mailed not later than the 15th day after the date of receipt of the hearing officer's decision and received by the Commission not later than the 20th day after the date of receipt of the hearing officer's decision. Both portions of Rule 143.3(e) must be satisfied in order for an appeal to be timely. Texas Workers' Compensation Commission Appeal No. 002806, decided January 17, 2001.

Records of the Commission indicated that the hearing officer's decision was mailed to the claimant on January 26, 2005. Pursuant to Rule 102.5(d), the claimant was deemed to have received the hearing officer's decision 5 days later, or on January 31, 2005. Although the claimant asserts in his appeal that he received the hearing officer's decision on February 10, 2005, the Appeals Panel has held that when Commission records show mailing to the claimant on a particular day at the correct address, the mere assertion that the decision was received after the deemed date of receipt is not sufficient to extend the date of receipt past the deemed date of receipt provided by Commission rule. Texas Workers' Compensation Commission Appeal No. 022550, decided November 14, 2002. Thus, the deemed date of receipt is January 31, 2005.

With the deemed date of receipt of January 31, 2005, in accordance with amended Section 410.202, the appeal needed to be filed or mailed no later than February 22, 2005. The claimant's request for review was sent to the Commission by U.S. mail, was postmarked March 4, 2005, and was received by the Commission on March 8, 2005. Thus, the appeal is untimely.

Having determined that the hearing officer's decision and order have become final under Section 410.169 because a timely appeal was not filed with the Commission, the Appeals Panel does not have jurisdiction to review the hearing officer's decision.
