The screenshot shows the Texas Department of Insurance (TDI) website. The main navigation bar includes links for TDI Home, Insurance & HMO, State Fire Marshal, and Workers' Compensation. The page title is "Companies Regulated by TDI". On the left, there is an "Information Center Menu" with various links. The main content area lists several categories of regulated companies:

- Authorized Insurance Companies: A list of Authorized Insurance Companies in Texas. Home Office Name, Attorney for Service, Addresses, Date of Incorporation, License Date, Officer Names, Licensed Lines, Assets, Liabilities and Phone Numbers.
- Foreign Risk Retention Groups: Name, Address, Registered Date and Phone number.
- Premium Finance Companies: Name, Address, Phone, President, Secretary and Treasurer. Premium Finance Branches list their parent company's identification number.
- Previous Company Names: A list that includes the previous names for currently authorized insurance companies, third party administrators, premium finance companies, accredited and trusted reinsurers; registered foreign risk retention groups, purchasing groups, purchasing alliances and eligible surplus lines companies.
- Third Party Administrators: Name, Address, Phone Number, President, Secretary and Treasurer.

Below the list, there is a note: "For questions about company data, contact CompanyLicense@tdi.texas.gov. Please include your phone number when sending an e-mail." Another note states: "Agent download lists are available at www.tdi.texas.gov/licensing/agent/agentlists.htm". At the bottom, it says "For more information, contact: CompanyLicense@tdi.texas.gov". The page is dated "Last updated: 04/11/2017".

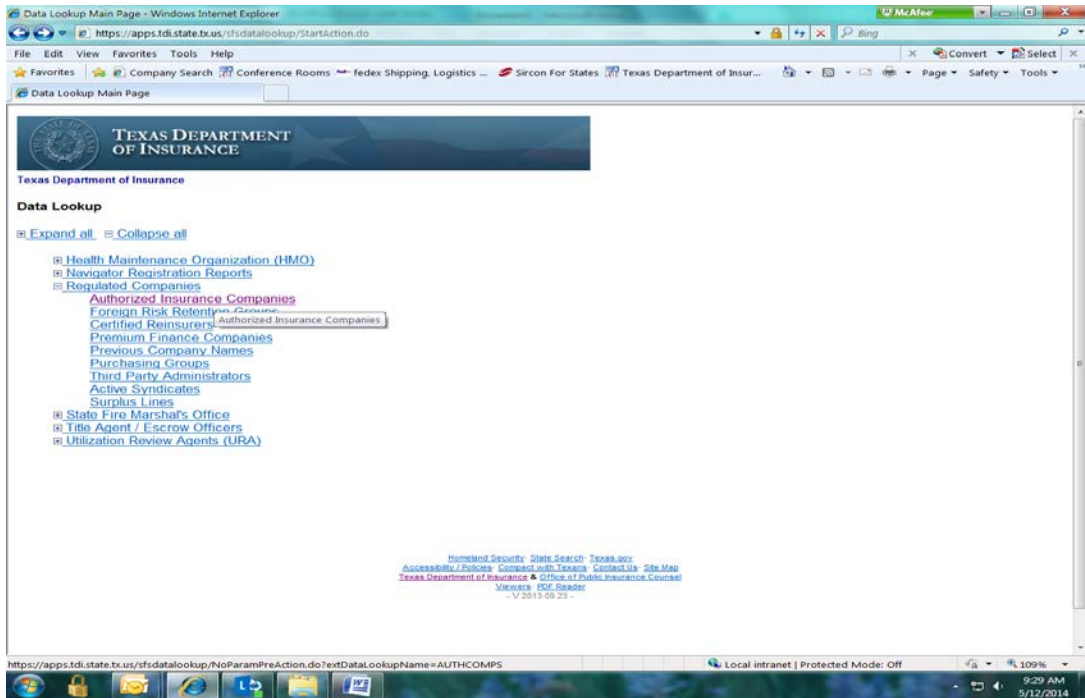

5. Click on the “Regulated Companies” tab

The screenshot shows the "Data Lookup" page on the Texas Department of Insurance website. The page title is "Data Lookup". There are expand/collapse buttons for the list of categories. The categories listed are:

- Health Maintenance Organization (HMO)
