

MEDICAL CONTESTED CASE HEARING NO. 13023
M5-12-36247-01

DECISION AND ORDER

This case is decided pursuant to Chapter 410 of the Texas Workers' Compensation Act and Rules of the Division of Workers' Compensation adopted thereunder.

ISSUE

A medical contested case hearing was opened on October 17, 2012 with the record closing on November 5, 2012 to decide the following disputed issue:

Is the preponderance of the evidence-based medical evidence contrary to the decision of the Independent Review Organization (IRO) that the Claimant is not entitled to prescriptions for Soma and Oxycontin on July 1, 2011 for the compensable injury of (Date of Injury)?

PARTIES PRESENT

On October 17, 2012, the Claimant/Petitioner (hereinafter "Claimant") failed to appear. SFG, ombudsman, was present to assist the Claimant. Carrier/Respondent (hereinafter "Carrier") appeared and was represented by SG, attorney.

After the October 17, 2012 hearing, the Claimant was sent a letter by the undersigned allowing him an opportunity to present good cause for his absence and evidence on the disputed issue. The Claimant responded to the letter but did not want to have the hearing placed back on the docket. The record is devoid of any evidence showing good cause for his absence on October 17, 2012.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The Claimant failed to appear at the hearing and he did not avail himself of the opportunity to present his case. Having failed to appear and offer evidence regarding the medical necessity of the disputed prescriptions, the Claimant failed to prove that the preponderance of the evidence-based medical evidence is contrary to the decision of the IRO that the Claimant is not entitled to the prescriptions for Soma or Oxycontin for his compensable (Date of Injury) injury.

Even though all the evidence presented was not discussed, it was considered. The Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are based on all of the evidence presented.

 - C. On (Date of Injury), Employer had workers' compensation insurance coverage with Charter Oak Fire Insurance Co., Carrier.
 - D. On (Date of Injury), the Claimant sustained a compensable injury while in the course and scope of his employment with (Employer).
 - E. On September 1, 2011, the IRO upheld the Carrier's denial of the prescriptions for Soma and Oxycontin for the Claimant's compensable (Date of Injury) injury.
2. No evidence was presented to show that the Claimant meets the criteria found in the Official Disability Guidelines for prescriptions for Soma and Oxycontin for his compensable (Date of Injury) injury, and no other evidence was presented to support the medical necessity of the said prescriptions.
3. The Claimant did not have good cause for failing to appear at the October 17, 2012 medical contested case hearing held herein.
4. Prescriptions for Soma and Oxycontin are not health care reasonably required for the compensable injury of (Date of Injury).
5. The undersigned mailed a single document stating the true corporate name of the Carrier, and the name and street address of Carrier's registered agent, which was admitted into evidence as Hearing Officer Exhibit Number 2, to the Claimant at his last known address.
