FINDINGS AND DECISION

This medical fee dispute is decided pursuant to Texas Labor Code §413.031 and applicable rules of the Texas Department of Insurance, Division of Workers' Compensation (DWC).

Background

- 28 Texas Administrative Code §133.307 sets out the procedures for resolving medical fee disputes.
- 28 Texas Administrative Code §134.250 sets out the fee guidelines for examinations to determine maximum medical improvement and impairment rating.
- The insurance carrier reduced payment for the disputed services citing the fee guidelines.

Issues

Is the requestor entitled to additional reimbursement for the examination in question?

Findings

Geneva Medical Management, Inc. is seeking additional reimbursement for a designated doctor examination performed on February 14, 2019.

The submitted documentation supports that Dr. Benson Chee performed an evaluation of maximum medical improvement as ordered by the DWC. Therefore, the maximum allowable reimbursement for this examination is $350.00.¹

The submitted documentation supports that Dr. Chee provided an impairment rating, which included a musculoskeletal body area, performing a full physical evaluation with range of motion of the middle fingers. Reimbursement is $300.00 for the first musculoskeletal body area if a full physical evaluation with range of motion is performed.²

The total allowable amount for the examination in question is $650.00. The insurance carrier paid $350.00. An additional $300.00 is recommended.

Conclusion

For the reasons stated above, the DWC finds that the requestor has established that additional reimbursement is due. As a result, the amount ordered is $300.00.

ORDER

Based on the submitted information, pursuant to Texas Labor Code Section 413.031 and 413.019 (if applicable), the DWC has determined the requestor is entitled to additional reimbursement for the disputed services. The DWC hereby ORDERS the respondent to remit to the requestor $300.00, plus applicable accrued interest per 28 Texas Administrative Code §134.130, due within 30 days of receipt of this order.
