FINDINGS AND DECISION

This medical fee dispute is decided pursuant to Texas Labor Code §413.031 and applicable rules of the Texas Department of Insurance, Division of Workers' Compensation.

Background

1. 28 Texas Administrative Code §133.307 sets out the procedures for resolving medical fee disputes.
2. 28 Texas Administrative Code §133.20 sets out requirements of medical bill submission.
3. Texas Labor Code 408.0272 sets out the workers compensation timely billing and exceptions guidelines.
4. The insurance carrier denied payment for the disputed services with the following claim adjustment codes:
   - 29 – The time limit for filing has expired

Issues

Is the insurance carrier's reason for denial of payment supported?

Findings

The requestor is seeking $616.53 for outpatient hospital services rendered on October 4, 2018. The insurance carrier denied disputed services based on the claim not being filed within 95 days from the date of service.

28 TAC §133.20 (b) states in pertinent part, health care providers shall submit medical bills no later than the ninety-fifth day after the services provided.

The requestor is seeking an exception found in Labor Code §408.0272(b)(1)(A) which allows a health care provider to submit satisfactory proof that within ninety-five days after notification of the erroneous submission of a claim to a group accident and health insurance policy under which the injured employee is a covered the health care provider submitted a claim to the correct workers' compensation insurance carrier.

Review of the submitted documentation found a claim was submitted to BlueCross Blue Shield of Texas on November 7, 2018.

The claim creation date on the submitted medical bill to Texas Mutual was April 17, 2019. This date is beyond ninety-five days of November 2018.

Insufficient evidence was found to support an exception to the timely filing requirement of rule 28 TAC §133.20 was met. The insurance carrier's denial is supported.

Conclusion

For the reasons stated above, DWC finds that the requestor has not established that additional reimbursement is due. As a result, the amount ordered is $0.00.

ORDER

Based on the submitted information, pursuant to Texas Labor Code Section 413.031, DWC hereby determines the requestor is entitled to $0.00 additional reimbursement for the services in dispute.
