FINDINGS AND DECISION

This medical fee dispute is decided pursuant to Texas Labor Code §413.031 and applicable rules of the Texas Department of Insurance, Division of Workers' Compensation.

Background

1. 28 Texas Administrative Code §133.307 sets out the procedures for resolving medical fee disputes.
2. 28 Texas Administrative Code §133.20 sets out requirements of medical bill submission.
3. Texas Labor Code 408.0272 sets out the workers compensation timely billing and exceptions guidelines.
4. The insurance carrier reduced payment for the disputed services with the following claim adjustment codes:
 - 29 – The time limit for filing has expired
 - 193 – Original payment decision is being maintained. Upon review, it was determined that this claim was processed properly

Issues

Is the insurance carrier’s reason for denial of payment supported?

Findings

The requestor is seeking reimbursement for outpatient hospital services performed in August 2019. The insurance carrier denied their claim as the time limit for filing has expired.

28 TAC §133.20 (b) states in pertinent part, a health care provider shall not submit a medical bill later than the 95th day after the date the services are provided unless the provider submits satisfactory proof of an exception found in section 408.0272 of the Texas Labor Code that an erroneous claim was submitted to a group accident and health policy, a health maintenance organization or a workers’ compensation carrier other than the insurance carrier liable for the payment of benefits.

Review of the submitted documentation found insufficient evidence to support one of the exceptions found above. The insurance carrier’s denial is supported.

Conclusion

In resolving disputes over reimbursement for medically necessary health care to treat a compensable injury, the role of DWC is to adjudicate payment following Texas laws and DWC rules. The findings in this decision are based on the evidence available at the time of review. Even though not all the evidence was discussed, it was considered.

For the reasons above the requestor has not established payment is due. As a result, the amount ordered is $0.00.

ORDER

In accordance with Texas Labor Code Section 413.031 and 413.019 (if applicable) and based on the submitted information, DWC finds the requestor is not entitled to additional reimbursement.
