Findings and Decision

Authority

This medical fee dispute is decided according to Texas Labor Code §413.031 and applicable rules of the Texas Department of Insurance, Division of Workers' Compensation (DWC).

Statutes and Rules

1. 28 Texas Administrative Code §130.1 sets out the procedures for certification of maximum medical improvement.
2. 28 TAC §133.307 sets out the procedures for resolving medical fee disputes.
3. 28 TAC §134.250 sets out the fee guidelines for examinations to determine maximum medical improvement.

Denial Reasons

The insurance carrier denied the payment for the disputed services with the following claim adjustment codes:

- B7 – This provider was not certified/eligible to be paid for this procedure/service on this date of service.
- 18 – Exact duplicate claim/service.

Issues

1. Is AIU Insurance Co.'s denial based on certification or eligibility supported?
2. Is Alice Yang, M.D. entitled to additional reimbursement?

Findings

1. Dr. Yang is seeking reimbursement for an examination to determine maximum medical improvement. AIU Insurance Co. denied payment stating, "This provider was not certified/eligible to be paid for this procedure/service on this date of service."

Per 28 TAC §130.1 (a)(1)(A)(i), the treating doctor is authorized to certify maximum medical improvement and determine if there is permanent impairment. The greater weight of evidence submitted supports that Dr. Yang was acting as the treating doctor for the service in question.

Per 28 TAC §130.1 (a)(1)(B)(ii), a doctor that is not certified to assign impairment ratings may certify maximum medical improvement if it is deemed that the injured employee has no impairment. The documentation submitted to DWC indicates that Dr. Yang found that the injured employee was at maximum medical improvement with no impairment. Therefore, certification is not relevant for the service considered in this review.

DWC finds that the insurance carrier's denial of payment based on certification or eligibility is not supported.

- 2. Because AIU Insurance Co. failed to support its denial of payment for the service in question, Dr. Yang is entitled to reimbursement.

According to 28 TAC §§134.250 (3)(A), the treating doctor is required to bill an examination to determine maximum medical improvement with CPT code 99455. The treating doctor is required to include modifier "V1," "V2," "V3," "V4," or "V5" to correspond with the last digit of the applicable office visit.

28 TAC §134.250 (3)(A)(i) states that reimbursement is the applicable established patient office visit level associated with the examination. Dr. Yang billed the examination in question with modifier V3.

The applicable office visit level that corresponds with this modifier is 99213. The maximum allowable reimbursement (MAR) for this code is based on Medicare payment policies as described in 28 TAC §134.203. The MAR for the MMI portion of the examination in question is $160.00. This amount is recommended.

Conclusion

The outcome of this medical fee dispute is based on the evidence presented by the requestor and the respondent at the time of adjudication. Though all evidence may not have been discussed, it was considered.

DWC finds the requester has established that additional reimbursement of $160.00 is due.

Order

Under Texas Labor Code §§413.031 and 413.019, DWC has determined the requestor is entitled to additional reimbursement for the disputed services. It is ordered that AIU Insurance Co. must remit to Alice Yang, M.D. $160.00 plus applicable accrued interest within 30 days of receiving this order in accordance with 28 TAC §134.130.
