___ has been certified by the Texas Department of Insurance as an Independent Review Organization. The Texas Worker's Compensation Commission has assigned this case to ___ for independent review in accordance with TWCC Rule 133.308 which allows for medical dispute resolution by an IRO.

___ has performed an independent review of the proposed care to determine if the adverse determination was appropriate. In performing this review, all relevant medical records and documentation utilized to make the adverse determination, along with any documentation and written information submitted, was reviewed.

This case was reviewed by a licensed Medical Doctor who is board certified in Orthopedic Surgery. The ___ health care professional has signed a certification statement stating that no known conflicts of interest exist between the reviewer and any of the treating doctors or providers or any of the doctors or providers who reviewed the case for a determination prior to the referral to ___ for independent review. In addition, the reviewer has certified that the review was performed without bias for or against any party to the dispute.

CLINICAL HISTORY

This patient originally had an injury on ___ where she slipped on a wet parking lot and developed low back pain radiating down her legs. She has had conservative care since that time consisting of facet syndrome blocks and weight loss. The doctor's notes indicate that the injury consists of a herniated disc. The notes indicate intermittent relief from the electrical stim and according to the reports form ___ she has been increasing her activities of daily living with the use of the RS4 sequential stimulator.

REQUESTED SERVICE

The disputed service is the prospective medical necessity of an RS4 sequential 4-channel combination interferential and muscle stimulator.

DECISION

The reviewer disagrees with the previous adverse determination.

BASIS FOR THE DECISION

The reviewer indicates his decision is based upon the fact that the stimulator does give some pain relief and increased activities of daily living. Therefore, in compliance with Texas Labor Code 408.021 this is a medically necessary treatment.

___ has performed an independent review solely to determine the medical necessity of the health services that are the subject of the review. ___ has made no determinations regarding benefits available under the injured employee's policy.

As an officer of ___, Inc, dba ___, I certify that there is no known conflict between the reviewer, ___ and/or any officer/employee of the IRO with any person or entity that is a party to the dispute.

Sincerely,
