

As a Credentialed Distinguished Mediator, Texas Mediator Credentialing Association, Nancy is best known for her ability to efficiently help parties keep their conversation moving forward towards a resolution they can live with. She began her mediation career while working at a health care facility and is able to draw on 15+ years of high quality mediation experience to ensure thoroughness when handling the most difficult and contentious cases.