

Ms. Harris 2010 © [REDACTED]

Mary D. Harris is a Mediator in the State of Texas. Her extensive experience, sharp intellect, and innate facility connecting with parties help her to get to the heart of matters in dispute, primarily in the field of insurance. This has yielded many of successful complex exposure to the mediation field, spanning an impressive diversity of topics and practice areas. Ms. Harris enjoys helping clients find efficient, creative and lasting solutions for the most challenging disputes, from complex, multiparty, multi-claim conflicts to more common, but often no less contentious, disagreements.

Ms. Harris has trained extensively throughout her career, with mentors at various levels and is eager to learn even more. With over 15 years of experience in the insurance field, Ms. Harris has worked in various capacities and has proven herself to be trusted in those positions. As an advocate for children, Ms. Harris has volunteered as a CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate for Abused Children), being the voice for a vulnerable and voiceless population.

Mediation Training & Highlights

- Certification in Mediation and Negotiation
- Client dispute and satisfaction
- Medicare and Medicaid resolutions
- Knowledge in medical billing and claims
- Long Term Disability resolutions
- Consumer Affairs
- Employee Benefits Management

Education: Bachelor of Applied Science and Arts

University of North Texas, Denton Texas (May 2020)

Affiliations: Texas Association of Mediators