Subject: Adopted rule to allow treating doctors to perform maximum medical improvement examinations by telemedicine or telehealth

The Texas Department of Insurance, Division of Workers' Compensation (DWC) adopted a rule amending 28 Texas Administrative Code Section 133.30, concerning telemedicine, telehealth, and teledentistry services.

The amendments are necessary to allow treating doctors to perform maximum medical improvement (MMI) examinations by telemedicine or telehealth when there is no impairment. The amendments:

- Modify the definition of "telemedicine services" and "telehealth services" to include an examination by a treating doctor to certify MMI under 28 TAC Sections 130.1 and 130.2, concerning certification of MMI and evaluation of permanent impairment when:
 - The injured employee has been examined by the treating doctor for the condition in question at least once before the examination to certify MMI;
 - The injured employee has consented to the examination to certify MMI by telemedicine or telehealth; and
 - The condition in question qualifies as a minor injury, such as Section 130.2\(a\)\(2\) contemplates, requires no additional treatment, and has resulted in no impairment.
- Clarify that the billing requirements in 28 TAC Section 134.250, concerning MMI evaluations and impairment rating examinations by treating doctors, apply.
- Do not include impairment rating examinations under 28 TAC Section 130.1 in the definition of telemedicine and telehealth.

DWC adopted the rule with two changes to the proposed text. The changes update the effective dates in the rule to June 1, 2025. DWC received one oral comment at the January 8, 2025, public hearing and four written comments on the rule by the January 13, 2025, deadline.

The rule will be published in the February 21, 2025, issue of the Texas Register and available at www.sos.state.tx.us/texreg/index.shtml once published. We will also post a copy of the rule on the website at www.tdi.texas.gov/wc/rules/2025rules.html.
