

APPEAL NO. 210080
FILED MARCH 12, 2021

This appeal arises pursuant to the Texas Workers' Compensation Act, TEX. LAB. CODE ANN. § 401.001 et seq. (1989 Act). A contested case hearing (CCH) was held on December 7, 2020, in (city), Texas, with (administrative law judge). presiding as the administrative law judge (ALJ). The ALJ resolved the disputed issues by deciding that: (1) the compensable injury of (date of injury), extends to L4-5 disc bulge with annular tear; and (2) the first certification of maximum medical improvement and assigned impairment rating from (Dr. C) on February 9, 2015, became final under Section 408.123 and 28 TEX. ADMIN. CODE § 130.12 (Rule 130.12). The appellant (self-insured) appeals the ALJ's determinations of finality and extent of injury. The respondent (claimant) responded, urging affirmance.

DECISION

Reversed and remanded.

This case is remanded for the purpose of compliance with House Bill (H.B.) 2600 of the 77th Texas Legislature, Regular Session (R.S.) amending Section 410.164, effective June 17, 2001. Section 410.164 was amended by the addition of subsection (c), which provides as follows:

(c) At each [CCH], as applicable, the insurance carrier shall file with the ALJ and shall deliver to the claimant a single document stating the true corporate name of the insurance carrier and the name and address of the insurance carrier's registered agent for service of process. The document is part of the record of the [CCH].<sup>1</sup>

In this case, the address provided on the carrier's information form for the person identified as the registered agent is a post office box, where service of process cannot be effectuated. Therefore, we remand so that a street address may be provided by the self-insured for its registered agent, in order to carry out the purpose of the legislation. See Appeals Panel Decision (APD) 011587, decided August 24, 2001; and APD 180107, decided February 20, 2018.

Pending resolution of the remand, a final decision has not been made in this case. However, since reversal and remand necessitate the issuance of a new decision
