Instructions for Issuing Certificates of Insurance

Name and address of insured must appear exactly as shown on policies.

Limits higher or coverage broader than those provided in the policies cannot be shown on certificates. Special requirements must be first endorsed on policies before they can be certified.

Show full name and address of certificate holders in Item 4. Special cancellation provisions can also be shown in this item.

If the policy has a provision that requires the company to send notice of cancellation to certificate holders, be certain that the company is furnished copies of all certificates or lists of all certificate holders.
