General remarks and official action taken:

The commissioner of insurance considers whether disciplinary action should be taken against Heather M. Polley.

FINDINGS OF FACT

4. Polley was appointed by Combined Insurance Company of America from October 2015, through July 2016.

5. According to Combined records, Polley submitted at least 14 fraudulent applications for insurance policies, resulting in her receiving approximately $1,926.00 in unearned commissions. Combined applied her bond which covered the amount owed to the company.

7. Polley failed to complete 18 hours of continuing education required for the 2014 to 2017 reporting period.
