To Our Customers:

The latest edition of Filing Smart – 2016 Annual and 2017 Quarterly Filing Requirements is now available on-line at: <http://www.tdi.texas.gov/financial/indexsmart.html>.

Filing Smart was developed to assist our customers in submitting information to the Financial Regulation Division and the Data Services Office of the Regulatory Policy Division. Categorized by company type, Filing Smart provides important information regarding filing requirements - what, when, and where to file; amount of applicable fees; applicable reports and associated fees; and contact information for each area. Additionally, the guide lists the Data Call filings required by the Data Services Office and provides answers to commonly asked questions.

We have appreciated your suggestions in the past, and continue to welcome your suggestions to improve the usefulness of Filing Smart. Please direct your comments and suggestions to Financial Analysis by mail or email:
