2. 28 Texas Administrative Code §134.503 sets out the reimbursement for compound medications
3. Explanation of Benefits:

Findings

After notification by the Division’s medical fee dispute resolution program of the carrier’s response and payment, Memorial did not take the opportunity to refute the carrier’s payment or provide additional information.

The Division makes the following conclusions based upon the information and documentation presented to the Division to date. Even though all the evidence was not discussed, it was considered.

1. Did the carrier reimburse Memorial for the disputed services?

Memorial Compounding Rx (Memorial) asserts that the carrier has not paid for the service in dispute. Review of the Explanation of Benefits (EOB), dated September 17, 2018, finds that the carrier issued a payment in the amount of $555.68 to Memorial.

The Division concludes that the carrier reimbursed Memorial for the full disputed amount. For that reason, the Division moves to resolve this dispute with the information available and concludes that no additional reimbursement can be recommended.

ORDER

Based on the submitted information, and pursuant to Texas Labor Code Section 413.031, the division has determined that the requestor is not entitled to additional reimbursement for the services in dispute.
