Respondent's Position

"The provider filed a DWC 60, seeking Medical Fee Dispute Resolution for a date of service of February 18, 2024. The provider filed the DWC 60 with DWC on June 18, 2025. The provider was required to file it no later than one year following the date of service. The provider failed to timely file the request for Medical Fee Dispute Resolution. Accordingly, the provider is not entitled to Medical Fee Dispute Resolution."

Findings and Decision

Authority

This medical fee dispute is decided according to Texas Labor Code §413.031 and applicable rules of the Texas Department of Insurance, Division of Workers' Compensation (DWC).

Statutes and Rules

1. 28 Texas Administrative Code \(TAC\) §133.307 sets out the procedures for resolving medical fee disputes.

Denial Reasons

The insurance carrier denied the payment for the disputed services with the following claim adjustment codes:

- 4271 – Per TX Labor Code Sec. 408.027, providers must submit bills to payors within 95 days of the date of service.
- 29 – The time limit for filing claim/bill has expired.

Issues

1. Did the requester waive the right to medical fee dispute resolution?

Findings

1. The requester is seeking payment of outpatient emergency room services rendered in February of 2024. The insurance carrier denied for untimely submission of the medical bill. DWC Rule 28 TAC §133.307(c)(1) states:

"Timeliness. A requester shall timely file with the Division's MDR Section or waive the right to MDR. The Division shall deem a request to be filed on the date the division receives the request.

(A) A request for medical fee dispute resolution that does not involve issues identified in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph shall be filed no later than one year after the date(s) of service in dispute.

(B) A request may be filed later than one year after the date(s) of service if:

(i) a related compensability, extent of injury, or liability dispute under Labor Code Chapter 410 has been filed, the medical fee dispute shall be filed not later than 60 days after the date the requester receives the final decision, inclusive of all appeals, on compensability, extent of injury, or liability;

(ii) a medical dispute regarding medical necessity has been filed, the medical fee dispute must be filed not later than 60 days after the date the requester received the final decision on medical necessity, inclusive of all appeals, related to the health care in dispute and for which the insurance carrier previously denied payment based on medical necessity; or

(iii) the dispute relates to a refund notice issued pursuant to a division audit or review, the medical fee dispute must be filed not later than 60 days after the date of the receipt of a refund notice.

The date of the service in dispute is February 18, 2024. The request for medical dispute resolution was received at the Division on June 18, 2025.

Review of the submitted documentation found insufficient evidence to support an exception as detailed above. The requester has waived their right to MFDR for dates of service in dispute.

Conclusion

The outcome of this medical fee dispute is based on the evidence presented by the requester and the respondent at the time of adjudication. Though all evidence may not have been discussed, it was considered.

DWC finds the requester has not established that reimbursement is due.

Order

Under Texas Labor Code §§413.031 and 413.019, DWC has determined the requester is entitled to $0.00 reimbursement for the disputed services.
