WAUSAU UNDERWRITERS INSURANCE COMPANY, Petitioner	§ § § § § § §	BEFORE THE STATE OFFICE
V.		OF
VISTA MEDICAL CENTER HOSPITAL, Respondent	§ §	ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS

DECISION AND ORDER

Wausau Underwriters Insurance Company (Carrier) requested a hearing on a decision by the Medical Review Division (MRD) of the Texas Department of Insurance, Division of Workers' Compensation (Division)¹ ordering additional reimbursement to Vista Medical Center Hospital (Provider) for a hospital stay provided to Claimant, an injured worker. Provider argued that reimbursement for this admission should be based on the Stop-Loss Exception to the per diem reimbursement methodology contained in the 1997 Acute Care Inpatient Hospital Fee Guideline (1997 ACIHFG).² The Administrative Law Judges (ALJs) find the Stop-Loss Exception should be followed in this proceeding. However, Carrier has already paid Provider all reimbursement due under the Stop-Loss Exception and, accordingly, Carrier is not ordered to pay additional reimbursement.

I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY, NOTICE AND JURISDICTION

The MRD issued its decision on October 11, 2004. Petitioner filed a timely and sufficient request for hearing. Notice of the hearing was appropriately issued to the parties. The hearing

² The 1997 ACIHFG established a general reimbursement scheme for all inpatient services provided by an acute care hospital for medical and/or surgical admissions using a service-related standard per diem amount. Independent reimbursement is allowed on a case-by-case basis if the particular case exceeds the Stop-Loss Threshold as described in paragraph (6) of 28 TEX. ADMIN. CODE (TAC) § 134.401(c). This independent reimbursement mechanism, the Stop-Loss Method or Stop-Loss Methodology, is sometimes referred to as the Stop-Loss Exception or the Stop-Loss Rule.

II. DISCUSSION

A. Factual Overview

The basic facts were uncontested. Claimant sustained a compensable injury and was admitted to Provider, where Claimant underwent treatment. After Claimant was discharged from the hospital, Provider submitted a bill to Carrier in the amount of $96,377.66, based on Provider’s usual and customary charges for the inpatient stay and surgical procedure. To date, Carrier has paid $58,892.45.

B. Issues

1. Summary of Positions and ALJs’ Decision

In summary, the parties’ positions and ALJs’ findings are as follows:

	MRD	Provider	Carrier	ALJs
Charges	$96,377.66	$96,377.66	$96,377.66	$96,377.66
Reimbursement Methodology	x 75%	x 75%	applied modified Stop-Loss ⁴	x 75%
Reimbursement	$63,971.75 ⁵	$72,283.25	$58,892.45	$56,352.87⁶

³ Beginning in 2003, the Division began referring a significant number of ACIHFG cases to SOAH. Between 2003 and August 31, 2005, approximately 885 ACIHFG cases were referred to SOAH for contested case hearings on issues including the Stop-Loss Exception, audits, and the reimbursement of implantables. In order to efficiently and economically manage this growing number of cases, SOAH in late 2004 and early 2005 began to join the cases into a Stop-Loss Docket, and the cases were abated. By the close of the 2005 regular legislative session, SOAH realized a finite, but still unknown, number of Stop-Loss cases would be referred to SOAH by the Division through August 31, 2005.

⁴ Carrier subtracted the charge for implantables from the total billed charges ($96,377.66 - $31,399.00 = $64,978.66). However, Carrier made a $.06 error and calculated the difference as $64,978.60. Carrier paid 75% ($64,978.60 x 75% = $48,733.95) as reimbursement for all charges except implantables. Carrier initially reduced the charges for implantables to “usual and customary for the geographical area.” Subsequently, after Carrier received the cost invoices from Provider, Carrier paid $10,158.50 for the implantables at cost plus 10% as “fair and reasonable.” Reimbursement totaled $58,892.45 ($48,733.95 + $10,158.50).

⁵ MRD subtracted “proper audit reductions for implantables” from total billed charges ($96,377.65 - $21,240.50 = $75,137.16). For reasons that are not explained, MRD then added the “payment for implantables” ($75,137.16 + $10,158.50 = $85,295.66) and multiplied that total by 75% to obtain the reimbursement amount under the Stop-Loss Exception ($85,295.66 x 75% = $63,971.75). MRD then subtracted the amount already paid by Carrier to derive the additional reimbursement owed by Carrier to Provider ($63,971.75 - $58,892.45 = $5,079.30).

Amount
Less Payment	($58,892.45)	($58,892.45)	($58,892.45)	($58,892.45)
Balance Due Provider	$5,079.30	$13,390.80	$0.00	$0.00

2. Background

When a hospital's total audited bill is greater than $40,000, the Division's Stop-Loss Exception applies, and the hospital is reimbursed at 75% of its total audited bill. The purpose of the Stop-Loss Methodology is "to ensure fair and reasonable compensation to the hospital for unusually costly services rendered during treatment to an injured worker."⁷ The following legal issues in this case were decided by a SOAH En Banc Panel⁸ (En Banc Panel), and those determinations are incorporated herein. Legal arguments related to these issues will not be addressed, other than in the Conclusions of Law.

3. The ALJs conclude that a hospital's post-audit usual and customary charges for items listed in 28 TAC § 134.401(c)(4) are the audited charges used to calculate whether the Stop-Loss Threshold has been met for a workers' compensation admission. The ALJs decline to adopt the Carriers' argument to use the carve-out reimbursement amounts in § 134.401(c)(4) as audited charges, and they decline to adopt the Division's argument to use a fair-and-reasonable amount as determined by a carrier in its bill review as audited charges.
4. The ALJs find that when the Stop-Loss Methodology applies to a workers' compensation hospitalization, all eligible items, including items listed in § 134.401(c)(4), are reimbursed at 75% of their post-audit amount. Items listed in § 134.401(c)(4) are not reimbursed at the carve out amounts provided in that section when the Stop-Loss Methodology is applied.
5. The ALJs conclude that any reasons for denial of a claim or defenses not asserted by a Carrier before a request for medical dispute resolution may not be considered, whether or not they arise out of an audit. The ALJs also conclude that Carriers' audit rights are not limited by § 134.401(c)(6)(A)(v) when the Stop-Loss Methodology applies. In such cases, carriers may audit in accordance with § 134.401(b)(2)(c).

⁶ Because Provider did not contest the MRD Decision, the ALJs do not re-examine the $21,240.50 in implantable audit reductions MRD determined proper ($31,399.00 total implantable charges - $10,158.50 allowed post-audit implantable charges = $21,240.50 disallowed implantable charges after audit). However, because Carrier contested the additional reimbursement ordered by MRD, the ALJs do examine the Stop-Loss Methodology used by MRD and also correct mathematical errors. To calculate Stop-loss reimbursement, the ALJs subtract proper audit reductions from total billed charges ($96,377.66 - $21,240.50 = $75,137.16). The reimbursement amount is 75% of the post-audit charges ($75,137.16 x 75% = $56,352.87). After subtracting the amount already paid by Carrier from the reimbursement amount, the balance due Provider is $0.00 ($56,352.87 - $58,892.45).

⁷ 28 TAC § 134.401(c)(6).

⁸ En Banc Panel Order in Consolidated Stop-Loss Legal Issues Docket, SOAH Docket No. 453-03-1487.M4 (Lead Docket), issued January 12, 2007.

4. The ALJs find that a hospital establishes eligibility for applying the Stop-Loss Methodology under § 134.401(c)(4) when total eligible amounts exceed the Stop-Loss Threshold of $40,000. There is no additional requirement for a hospital to establish that any or all of the services were unusually costly or unusually extensive.⁹

Finally, in reply to a request for clarification, the En Banc Panel found that when referring to a hospital's usual and customary charges, the rules are referring to the hospital's own usual and customary charges and not to charges that are an average or median of other hospitals' charges.¹⁰ Provider charged its usual and customary charges for the particular items or service.

In summary, the ALJs conclude that the Stop-Loss Threshold was met in this case and that the amounts in dispute should be calculated accordingly.

III. FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Claimant sustained a compensable injury in the course and scope of his employment; his employer had coverage with Wausau Underwriters Insurance Company (Carrier).
2. Vista Medical Center Hospital (Provider) provided medical treatment to Claimant for the compensable injury.
3. Provider submitted itemized billing totaling $96,377.66 for the services provided to Claimant for the treatment in issue.
4. Provider's bill included charges in the amount of $31,399.00 for surgical implantables used to treat Claimant.
5. The $96,377.66 billed was Provider's usual and customary charges for these items and treatments.
6. Carrier reimbursed Provider at 75 percent of billed charges, except for implantables.
7. Carrier has issued payments of $58,892.45 to Provider for the services in question.
8. Carrier denied further reimbursement to Provider.

⁹ The En Banc Panel's decision cites § 134.401(c)(4) rather than § 134.401(c)(6) as the applicable rule because of a typographical error.

¹⁰ Letter from ALJ Catherine C. Egan dated February 23, 2007.

9. Provider requested Dispute Resolution Services from the Medical Review Division (MRD) of the Texas Workers' Compensation Commission (Commission).
10. Effective September 1, 2005, the legislature dissolved the Commission and created the Division of Workers' Compensation within the Texas Department of Insurance. The Commission and its successor are collectively referred to as the Division.
11. MRD issued its Findings and Decision, holding that further reimbursement in the amount of $5,079.30 was owed by Carrier.
12. MRD determined that Carrier made proper audit reductions of $21,240.50 to Provider's total billed charges.
13. Provider did not file a request for a contested case hearing on MRD's decision.
14. Carrier timely filed a request for a contested case hearing on the MRD's decision.
15. All parties were provided not less than 10-days notice of hearing and of their rights under the applicable rules and statutes.
16. On October 11, 2007, Administrative Law Judges Howard S. Seitzman and Tommy L. Broyles convened a hearing on the merits at the hearing facilities of the State Office of Administrative Hearings (SOAH) in Austin, Texas. Carrier and Provider were present and represented by counsel. The Division did not participate in the hearing. The hearing concluded and the record closed on October 11, 2007.
17. Provider's total audited charges under § 134.401(c)(6)(A)(v) are $75,137.16, which allows Provider to obtain reimbursement under the Division's Stop-Loss Methodology.
18. Under the Stop-Loss Methodology, Provider is entitled to total reimbursement of $56,352.87. After deduction of Carrier's prior payment of $58,892.45, Provider is not entitled to additional reimbursement under the Stop-Loss Methodology.

IV. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The State Office of Administrative Hearings has jurisdiction over matters related to the hearing in this proceeding, including the authority to issue a decision and order, pursuant to TEX. LAB. CODE ANN. §§ 402.073 and 413.031(k) and TEX. GOV'T CODE ANN. ch. 2003.
2. Carrier timely requested a hearing, as specified in 28 TEX. ADMIN. CODE (TAC) § 148.3.
3. Proper and timely notice of the hearing was provided to the parties in accordance with TEX. GOV'T CODE ANN. §§ 2001.051 and 2001.052.
4. Petitioner had the burden of proof in this proceeding pursuant to 28 TAC § 148.21(h) and (i).
5. All eligible items, including the items listed in 28 TAC § 131.401(c)(4), are included in the calculation of the $40,000 Stop-Loss Threshold.

6. In calculating whether the Stop-Loss Threshold has been met, all eligible items are included at the hospital's usual and customary charges in the absence of an applicable MARS or a specific contract.
7. The carve-out reimbursement amounts contained in 28 TAC § 134.401(c)(4) are not used to calculate whether the Stop-Loss Threshold has been met.
8. When the Stop-Loss Methodology applies to a workers' compensation admission, all eligible items, including items listed in 28 TAC § 134.401(c)(4), are reimbursed at 75% of their post-audit amount.
9. Under the Stop-Loss Methodology, items listed in 28 TAC § 134.401(c)(4) are not reimbursed at the carve-out amounts provided in that section when the Stop-Loss Methodology applies.
10. Carriers' audit rights are not limited by 28 TAC § 134.401(c)(6)(A)(v) when the Stop-Loss Methodology applies. In such cases, carriers may audit in accordance with 28 TAC § 134.401(b)(2)(C).
11. Pursuant to 28 TAC § 133.307(j)(2), any defense or reason for denial of a claim not asserted by a carrier before a request for medical dispute resolution may not be considered at the hearing before SOAH, whether or not it arises out of an audit.
12. A hospital, Provider in this case, establishes eligibility for applying the Stop-Loss Methodology under 28 TAC § 134.401(c)(6) when total eligible charges exceed the Stop-Loss Threshold of $40,000. There is no additional requirement for a hospital to separately establish that any or all of the services were unusually costly or unusually extensive.
13. The Stop-Loss Methodology applies to this case.
14. The February 17, 2005 Staff Report (Staff Report) by MRD Director Allen C. McDonald, Jr., is not consistent with the Stop-Loss Rule, 28 TAC § 134.401(c)(6), and is not consistent with the Division's prior interpretation of the rule that the $40,000 Stop-Loss Threshold alone triggered the application of the Stop-Loss Methodology.
15. The Staff Report is not consistent with the Stop-Loss Rule, the preambles to the Stop-Loss Rule published in the Texas Register, or MRD decisions issued prior to February 17, 2005.
16. The Staff Report has no legal effect for this case.
17. Applying the Stop-Loss Methodology in this case, Provider is entitled to total reimbursement of $56,352.87.
18. As specified in the above Findings of Fact, Carrier has already reimbursed Provider $58,892.45 of this amount.
19. Based on the foregoing findings of fact and conclusions of law, Carrier owes Provider no additional reimbursement.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that Wausau Underwriters Insurance Company is not required to reimburse Vista Medical Center Hospital any additional sums for services provided to Claimant.
