

Larry brings a different perspective to his mediation practice from his knowledge and life experiences. Larry served honorably in the United States Navy as an aircraft technician initially in a forward deployed squadron in Atsugi, Japan and completed his tour of duty in Oak Harbor, Washington. After a seven year break in service, Larry enlisted in the Texas Army National Guard followed by his activation to serve in the Iraqi Freedom campaign where after his service was honorably discharged. He worked in the aviation private sector as an aircraft technician on various fixed wing aircraft and specialized in aircraft engine maintenance for a total of twenty years.

After his service to his country, Larry pursued his higher education at the age of thirty-five. He enrolled in the Dallas Community College District at Richland College completing his first two years of undergraduate work. Larry transferred to Southern Methodist University and graduated with cum laude Latin honors majoring in History and Political Science with a minor in Arabic. During his studies at SMU, Larry attended a Washington Semester Program at American University where he studied the political, cultural, and religious dynamics in the Middle East and how the region affects U.S. diplomacy. Further, Larry received the Philip H. Solomon Award in Foreign Languages and the Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship in which Larry studied Arabic abroad in Morocco . After graduation, Larry was accepted at UNT Dallas College of Law in the inaugural 2014 class where he earned his Juris Doctor. Larry participated in the law school's Community Lawerying Centers where he received distinctive recognition for his representation of indigent clients in immigration and landlord/tenant disputes.

Larry has worked in the legal field for over six years assisting attorneys in the areas of personal injury, contract and business disputes, family law, and immigration.

Larry lives with his wife and her three children in Richardson, Texas. He has two children from a previous marriage. From his family experience, Larry understands the dynamic of blended families and life after divorce.

Larry has completed his required 40 hour basic mediation certification training and 30 hour family mediation certification training as mandated by the State of Texas as well as 6 hours of training in domestic violence prevention resolution technique. Larry is a listed mediator with Dallas County's Alternative Dispute Resolution Center and a member of Texas Association of Mediators.