Employment before Law School

Before entering law school, was continuously employed since 1973. For more than 25 years, had a successful career in the publications and software industry, primarily as a manager, technical communicator and writer, and editor. Worked in multidisciplinary team environments that often required negotiation and mediation skills. Employed by the following companies: BMC Software, Inc.; Novell, Inc.; Radian Corporation; Computer Associates, Inc. (formerly BPI Systems); Texas Instruments, Inc.; LBJ School of Public Affairs; The Word Guild (Cambridge, MA); University of Texas Press.

For the first two years following graduation from UT, worked as a Red Cross swimming instructor and lifeguard, teacher aide in a rehabilitation center for disabled children, and an insurance proposal preparer.
