

We are pleased to announce that Van Wiltz is available to serve as mediator. Van, a North Texas native, graduated Magna Cum Laude from Loyola University School of Law, where he received several awards and participated in moot court and law review. Upon graduation from law school, Van worked for Thompson & Knight LLP. In 2015, he joined Bell Nunnally & Martin LLP.

Van later started his own practice where he represents individuals and small business owners. He is an experienced litigator that actively practices family and tort law. Van has a unique perspective in that he has worked as a transactional attorney and litigator.

Van received the mediator of the month award from the Dallas County Dispute Resolution Center and is a certified family law mediator.

Van is available for mediation. Please call Van at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] to schedule a mediation with Van.