

Biography

Simon J. Forster, D.C., DABCO, Cert MDT

Dr. Simon J. Forster has been in private practice for over 20 years after receiving his chiropractic education from the Anglo-European College in England. He originally moved to the States to pursue advanced training in chiropractic orthopedics and has been teaching programs on impairment rating and functional capacity evaluations for over 10 years.

He has served for several years as an examination commissioner for both the National Board of Chiropractic Examiners and the American Board of Chiropractic Orthopedists. He was appointed as the chiropractic representative to the Texas Workers' Compensation Commission's Medical Advisory Committee which was tasked with addressing educational curriculum development for the Designated Doctor training program, impairment rating examination development and return to work.

Dr. Forster is in full-time practice in Austin, Texas and frequently lectures to multidisciplinary audiences nationwide. He teaches programs on Functional Capacity Evaluation and Impairment Rating, Case Management/Clinical Outcomes Assessment and Evidence-Based Diagnostic and Treatment Concepts.
