

Biography

Lori Beth Wasserburger, M.D.

Dr. Wasserburger received her undergraduate degree in Zoology at the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1979. She received her medical degree in 1986 and completed residency training in 1990 at the University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio, Texas where she was Co-Chief Resident. Dr. Wasserburger is board certified in Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation (1991) and Neuromuscular and Electrodiagnostic Medicine (1992). She has an active practice in Austin, Texas. In addition, Dr. Wasserburger has been an expert witness for medicolegal cases since 1991. She formulates Life Care Plans for catastrophically injured individuals (spinal cord, brain, amputations, and multi-trauma).

Dr. Wasserburger has served as a Designated Doctor since 1993. She is on the Medical Quality Review Panel (MQRP) for TDI-Division of Workers' Compensation. She has served as the Advisor to Designated Doctor Education for testing and curriculum development plus lecturing for Designated Doctor training.