

CHAPTER 132: DEATH BENEFITS--DEATH AND BURIAL BENEFITS
28 TAC §132.7

INTRODUCTION. The Texas Department of Insurance, Division of Workers' Compensation (DWC) adopts an amendment to §132.7, relating to Duration of Death Benefits for Eligible Spouse. The purpose of this amendment is to align the rule with Texas Labor Code §408.183, as amended by House Bill (HB) 2503, 86th Legislature, Regular Session (2019), effective September 1, 2019. The Legislature amended §408.183 to expand eligibility of spouses who may receive death benefits for life, regardless of remarriage, to spouses of peace officers as described in Texas Code of Criminal Procedures Article 2.12, intrastate fire mutual aid system team members and regional incident management team members.

REASONED JUSTIFICATION. Amended §132.7(f) adds the words "or an individual described by Government Code §615.003(1) or Labor Code §501.001(5)(F)." The amendment also adds the words in §132.7(f)(1) "of first responders, as defined by Labor Code §504.055" to include those eligible spouses. New subsection §132.7(f)(2) is added, which states the amendment applies to "eligible spouses of individuals, as defined by Government Code §615.003(1) or Labor Code §501.001(5)(F), who remarry on or after September 1, 2019."

The amendment does not alter the distribution of death benefits under §132.11 or the redistribution of death benefits under §132.12. If there is an eligible child or grandchild and an eligible spouse, death benefits continue to be divided between the beneficiaries, with half paid to the eligible spouse and half paid in equal shares to the eligible children.

SUMMARY OF COMMENTS AND AGENCY RESPONSE.

Commenters: DWC received two comments. The Office of Injured Employee Counsel commented in support of the proposal. United Fire Group Insurance commented against the proposal.

Comment on §132.7. Commenter supports the proposed amendments to conform with the statutory changes in Labor Code §408.183, which the Texas Legislature amended under HB 2503, effective September 1, 2019. DWC's actions to conform the rules with amendments to the Labor Code benefits the injured employees of Texas.

Agency Response to Comment on §132.7. DWC acknowledges the supportive comment.

Comment on §132.7. Commenter opposes the amendment to §132.7. Commenter states that workers' compensation benefits were created to provide benefit to an injured employee or wage replacement to a beneficiary in the event of a spouse's fatality on the job. Commenter explains that the long-standing rule and intent of workers' compensation has been that, when a widow or widower remarries, the earning capacity of a relationship is restored, and the wage loss is no longer applicable. As proposed, commenter believes this amendment to §132.7 is prejudicial to the industry because it breaches the law of indemnification by creating a windfall for the surviving spouse.

Agency Response to Comment on §132.7. DWC acknowledges the comment and currently declines to make a change to the text. The amendment to §132.7 conforms the existing rule with statutory amendments to Labor Code §408.183, which became effective September 1, 2019.

§132.7. Duration of Death Benefits for Eligible Spouse

(a) Except as provided in subsection (f) of this section, a spouse who is determined eligible for death benefits is entitled to receive benefits until the date of the spouse's death or until remarriage. The insurance carrier shall notify the eligible spouse of the requirements of this section within 60 days of initiating benefits to that spouse.

(b) An eligible spouse who enters into a ceremonial or informal marriage is entitled to receive a lump-sum payment of 104 weeks of death benefits.

(e) An eligible spouse who knowingly accepts death benefits after remarriage in excess of the amount allowed by this section, and who does not notify the division or the
