Some states will accept license applications submitted electronically, while other states will accept only paper applications. If you are applying to a state or states accepting electronic applications, Sircon will collect your information and submit your application electronically. For paper only states, you must print paper copies of the forms and mail them to the appropriate state offices. Show states accepting electronic applications Show all states Not all license types are available in all states. Click on a state name below to view the license types available in that state. If the type you seek is not available, do not continue for that state. Instead you will need to contact the state to find out their requirements for application. Attention Texas adjuster applicants: To apply for a non-resident adjuster license in Texas with a designated home state please select 'Other Licenses' from the application home page. Attention Alabama applicants: All individual license applicants must submit proof of US citizenship by going to https://aldoi.gov/LicenseeCZ/Initial.aspx before your license is issued. Attention Hawaii individual applicants: Do not select 'Doing Business As' alias name type. It is not accepted by the state and application will be rejected if it is selected. Attention Georgia Applicants: Beginning January 1, 2012, you are required to submit Citizenship Affidavit Form GID-276-EN with your application. This form is available on the state website at						T	hen S		t

Fingerprinting

The fingerprint requirement is authorized in Texas Insurance Code 801.056 and amended 28 TAC 1.501 and 1.503-1.509. The complete text of the rule may be accessed at www.tdi.texas.gov/rules/2006/1003e-059.html.
 The Texas Department of Insurance strongly encourages all resident applicants to utilize electronic fingerprinting through approved vendors as authorized under the rule. Electronic fingerprinting is fast and accurate, and in most cases will avoid potential delays in the processing of your submission.

Electronic Fingerprinting

View the Electronic Fingerprinting instructions at the following location:

https://www.tdi.texas.gov/agent/fingerprint-instructions.html

- (Fingerprints provided for an application will be used to check criminal history records of the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS) and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), in accordance with applicable statutes).
